PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO

Martin Robert Genter Jr.

Public affairs, editorial strategy, learning design and practical AI.

PUBLIC COMMUNICATION

Speaking to Michigan voters

In the 2021 special election for Michigan's 8th State Senate District, Martin won the Democratic primary with 9,562 votes (70.5%). His campaign address offers a direct sample of his public speaking.

Watch the address County election record

TEACHING & CURRICULUM

Renaissance AI Career Academy

Martin directed the curriculum concept and editorial work, with AI-assisted production. The Foundation lesson and its 18-page program guide let a reviewer inspect the exercises, test cases and teach-back rubric.

Open the lesson Read the guide

PRODUCT DESIGN

The Practice Room

Martin developed the concept and directed the content with AI-assisted development. The browser-based tool guides a visitor through a difficult decision or an AI claim and exports the visitor's own record.

Try the working tool Read the working method

WRITING & EDITORIAL WORK

The Moral Ecology of Attention

An essay by Martin on how people and institutions shape what we notice. The companion short film pairs the argument with photographs from his personal archive.

Read the essay Watch Ten Minutes Longer

Experience & education

Congressional intern, Office of Representative Trent Kelly (2015–2016). Middle-school social studies teacher, Bridge Academy West in Hamtramck, Michigan (2024–2025). M.P.S. in Political Management, George Washington University (2023).

MartinGenter.com/portfolio author@martingenter.com Discuss a role